Atty. Gen. Kynes Is Candidate

For State Election

I am formally announcing my candidacy for the office of Attorney General.

Since my recent appointment to this office, I have been the grateful recipient of telephone calls, telegrams, and personal visits from citizens throughout the State of Florida.

While there has been the obvious speculation that I would be a candidate, I felt it necessary to make this declaration as soon as possible in order to get on with the business at hand — my obligation to carry out my duties as Attorney General and a Cabinet officer in the most efficient manner.

As a practicing attorney, a former State prosecutor, and, as one familiar with the public law of Florida, I became well acquainted with the important role played by the Attorney General as the Chief legal officer of our State. I am keenly aware of the magnitude of my duties as a member of the State Cabinet, sitting on some 24 boards and commissions which administer the affairs of State government.

Florida has been served by distinguished attorneys general, and I cite specifically my immediate predecessor, the Honorable Richard E. Ervin, recently appointed a Justice of the Florida Supreme Court. I have accepted this challenge with a solemn

Local Boy Transforms School Band Music

Frederick Stevens, a 15-year-old student of the Belie Glade High School, has transformed the school band into a more professional organization.

Professional ability, untiring efforts, malleable students of cooperative parents, an interested community with a love of music — these ingredients have been put together by Freddy Stevens, a local boy to create in the Belie Glade Schools active participation by 185 students in organized study of music.

Quality of the organizations is indicated in the fact that for eight years the Belie Glade High School band has won SUPERIOR rating in District contests, and at least one superior rating each year in State contests.

Last year Belie Glade High Band was second highest in points in State contest when 17 out of a possible 20 points were won — in Concert, Sight Reading and Marching.

These accomplishments with students from the sixth through the 12th grades totaling 185 is four times the number active when Mr. Stevens took over eight years ago.

There are 79 members from 19th to 12th in the High School Band; intermediates have 32 students in the band; there are 64 beginners looking forward to the privileges of the Senior Band.

USDA, Dr. Elmer Walker Brandes will be remembered from Canal Point to New Quine, near Washington, D. C. to Ethiopia and Afghanistan and with affection and respect by sugarcane growers of the Glades. Appropriately, in recognition of service to agriculture and to the Armed Forces, his body will be placed in Arlington Cemetery Friday.

As a frequent visitor and participant in work at the Canal Point Breeding Station, Dr. Brandes' attachment for the Soil caused him to establish a home in Canal Point following his retirement after 45 years of government service.

His death came as a result of a heart attack at his home in Palm Beach.

Heads Heart

Fund Drive

Joel W. Bass will head the 1944 Heart Fund Business drive in Belle Glade. This drive is announced today. This drive is a canvas of local commercial and professional offices which give the businessman a chance to contribute to the annual Heart Fund collection.

Mr. Bass said "Because 54 percent of all deaths under the age of 65 years are caused by heart disease this program deserves the attention of every American able to contribute time and money. One out of every two deaths in the United States — more than 800,000 each year — is caused by diseases of the heart and blood vessels. About one-fourth of these deaths occur in the 45-64 age group, the 'prime of life.' More money is needed to help research scientists who are looking to find the means of preventing heart disease."

Liquor & Beer Taxes Less Than Cigarette

The first half of fiscal year 1933-34 ended with a record $81 million collected by the State Beverage Department in alcoholic beverages and cigarette taxes, according to Beverage Director Richard B. Keating.

December's collections were up more than 10 percent from December of the previous year, for an increase of 42.11 percent Keating said.

The total collection of $61,120,045.96 for the full six-month period represents an increase of 39.39 percent over the first half of fiscal 1932-33. A portion of the increase is attributed to the additional tax imposed on the products by the State Legislature during its latest session.

There are business men in the Glades today who are still wondering "Just what the economic effect of sugarcane will have on the Glades."

To date it has seen the payroll of the area increased by $15 to $18 million annually from the cane operation; it has seen the vegetable payroll has increased by the measuring stick of total cars shipped and the prevailing price — what is a myriad of "What the economic effect is?"

Look at the total bank deposits, the record of home built houses, the record of the land. We too wonder — not what the effect is but just why folks wonder.

The cattle business is not what it was once — folks have been too busy planting sugarcane and vegetables!

Where We Will Park? - A Disease

The patient - practically any retail community in Belle Glade!

The disease - Where will we park close to retail outlets in the center of the City?

The doctors - First, the City Commission; second, the Merchants; and thirdly, the landlords who rent high priced retail stores.

The Medicine - thoughtful planning and cooperative endeavor. Uptown parking is a disease common to most cities - large and small - of 10,000 and up.

Other communities have solved the problem, and many are in the process, and thereby are saving up-town retail businesses. Pimpish eruptions on Avenue A, from Third to Fourth streets, have caused irritations and frustration to many could be customers of the businesses in that block.

The City Fathers have scratched the pimple and irritated it by establishing a "loading zone" on the north side of Avenue "A" thru the eliminating of two car spaces, for 24 hours per day.

Double and triple parking - abuse of an allowed privilege to milk, bread, grocery and vegetable trucks - obstructed traffic and irritated many, and brought about action by the City Fathers in orders to the Chief of Police to establish the loading zone.

Scratching the pimple, which is an evidence of a disease, will not cure the disease.

An alley - east & west for the stores on the north side of Avenue A would eliminate the loading zone, and eliminate use of streets for benefit of a few.

An off-street parking lot for the use of all stores on Avenue A HAS BEEN and still is an antibiotic for decreasing values on Avenue A.

Give your City Commission encouragement to "dose" the patient for my and your sake, and for the sake of retail business on Ave. A.

A solution here might indicate preventative action for other areas.

UNCLE DAN from DOOLIE says:

Dear Mister Editor:
I see by the papers where one of them big automobile companies is coming out twice a year with new cars. They aim to put some out next month and call 'em the "1964 1/2 models". The other car makers will fall in line and they ain't no telling where the thing will stop. I'm expecting it to get to three or four showings per year, all done in fractions.

The fellows that designs new car models was claiming the American public needs more than one new car showing a year. I could drive a 2-wheel wagon through the arguments. Mister Editor, but it wouldn't be no good. A heap of folks will be buying a 1964 1/2 model when they ain't got a good start yet on paying for their 1964 1/2 job.

These automobile companies is the master thinkers of our age. I recollect a few year ago when they come out with all them rainbow colored cars. They claimed they was not only pretty but the load colors would outshine on road accidents. They allowed as how fire trucks had always been painted red so folks could see 'em and git out the way. I ain't noticed no letup in car wrecks and it proves that wrecks ain't caused from not seeing the other feller. It proved that fire trucks had just as well be painted black, like funeral cars.

I don't know, Mister Editor, what this world is coming to. For instance, Ed Doolittle's daughter come by the country store Saturday night looking for Ed and he hadn't home since "lunch". Ed's daughter works in one of them city offices and now she comes home talking a Us rural folks, as a general rule, ain't got but three eating times a day, breakfast, dinner, and supper. Dinner comes as close to 12 noon as we can git it, and supper comes after it git too dark to work. We ain't got no such thing as "lunch" around here and whenever I use the word dinner in my little piece you'll know I'm talking about the meal that comes about the time of day when the sun is straight up and down over the top of the house.

Me and my old lady was talking about these matters at breakfast and she allows as how, just when it looks like the country was going to the bow-wow one week it keeps coming back the next. But if we git to calling dinner "lunch" and putting out automobiles in fractions, I ain't no sure we'll make it one of these weeks.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

"Talk's Good - How About Action?"

American concerned about recent trade agreements between our "allies" and Cuba were much encouraged by the remarks made last night by Secretary of State Dean Rusk. The Secretary made it very plain that the American government views these deals with Castro as a violation of our friendship and the stated policy of the United States Government.

The statement by the Secretary, along with past comments by high level Executive Branch officials, clearly state U.S. policy. But we are still faced, not only with the fact of Cuban trade, but the assumption that our own policy decisions are not being acted upon by our own government below the top policy level. We have been told, over and over, what our policy is. Yet we need to see more results from that policy.

England is selling buses to Castro. Spain is considering selling ships. All of Europe seems interested in giving some form of assistance to Castro, who is working day and night to bring communism to all of Latin America.

Every single time I have asked the State Department for a report on their success to end this trade, we get a reply in general terms suggesting that it is a most difficult problem, but that we are hopeful it will meet with success. Certainly it is difficult. It may become more so. But there is not a chance for success unless we make a more determined effort to isolate Castro through the Organization of American States.

I have made an effort to see what, if anything, is being done to implement the new action taken by Congress which will require a halt to all Foreign

"The Song Of Scouting" On TV Sunday

Commemorating the 54th Anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America, the "Spirit of Scouting" chorus of the Gulf Stream Council will present a television program entitled, "The Song of Scouting," Sunday night, February 9 on Channel 5 from 6:30 to 7:00 p.m. according to M. E. Gruber, Ceremonies Commissioner.

This choral observance of Boy Scout Week, February 7-13 is dramatized by pictures interspersed with narration which tell a concise, but complete story of Scouting honoring the three phases: Exploring, Boy Scouting and Cub Scouting. The songs range from the fun-filled campfire type to those which reveal the deeper meaning of Scouting and its effect upon the youth in its program.

Betty J. Swyers is the musical director, with Elsie Hart Robertson as accompanist at the piano. Paul A. Luck, District Executive, will render the narrative portion of the program. The chorus is composed of 43 scout members, representing 13 Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Explorer Units throughout the seven-county council area.

The Song of Scouting has been seven months in production and many people have made it possible. All scouts and scouters alike are urged to observe this commemorative event this Sunday.

SENIOR BAND MEMBERS — 1st Jimmy Meeks, Franklin Shotts, Robert Vickers and Cherry Bridges, head majorette, (Guy Wilson, not shown).

Belle Glade High 79 member band will be "Busin' Out All Over," along with Spring, on the night of February 28th, when it will offer the public a musical treat to include Pop, Concert, Classic and Marches. ALL DRESSED UP IN THEIR NEW UNIFORMS.

The kids, in tune with the times, have m. to that DOWN PA-A-AMINT on these 585 uniforms and must come up with the balance—some $5.00.

Instead of running around with the "gimmies," they are working hard to polish off the various numbers they want you to hear, and will put on a REAL TREAT, and ask you to purchase tickets.

If you like music, and are proud of the record of your Musical Department at the School, buy half dozen tickets and give them to your friends.

If you don't like music and DON'T HAVE ANY FRIENDS, just write a check for anything from $10 up to $100 and send it in to the school band — it stimulates the growth of conscience.

Remember the day—February 28th at the High School. The Band Parents Association, the Elks and the Lions, and band members will attempt to see that you don't forget the day, nor the occasion.

FOR'S RACING PROGRAM BUILDS BETTER CARS!

FORD OUTSCORES COMPETITION NEARLY 2 TO 1 IN NASCAR-SANCTIONED STOCK CAR RACING!

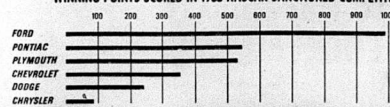

Ford is king of NASCAR competition, and Ford Motor Company has the NASCAR Achievement Award to prove it!

Last season special Ford entries won every single stock car race of 500 miles or longer, and scored nearly twice as many points as any other make, as shown in the chart below.

These 500-mile races are the ultimate test of inherent durability and dependability. The ability to stand up under the punishment of a 500-mile race is proof of Ford's total performance... performance that will benefit you in your type of driving. In two other major stock car racing associations, IMCA and MARC, Ford drivers also wrapped up the 1963 championships.

WINNING POINTS SCORED IN 1963 NASCAR-SANCTIONED COMPETITION

The Ford powered Lotus that made racing history in last year's Indianapolis 500.

TOTAL PERFORMANCE WINS MOTOR TREND "CAR OF THE YEAR" AWARD

This award went to the entire Ford line—with a special salute to Ford's total performance.

How Ford racing helps bring you a better car

Most automotive engineers will tell you that the track is one of their most valued laboratories.

For example, track competition led directly to the following changes in the Fairlane 289 V-8 engine: better block, improved pistons, improved valve train, stronger connecting rods and bolts.

Such improvements contribute not only to Ford's winning track record, but also to the total performance so important to your everyday driving. Test-drive a '64 from Ford soon, and see!

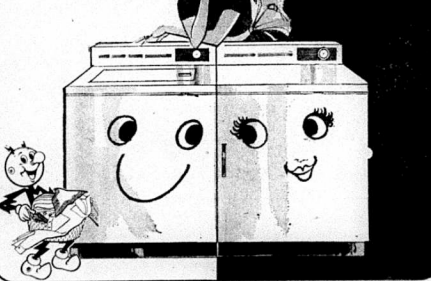

Fairlane V-8 Helps Cobra Win Sports Car Championship

The Cobra, with its modified Fairlane engine, emerged last year as the undisputed leader in the sports car field.

Cobra won the Manufacturer's Trophy in SCCA Class "A" production competition by so great a margin that no other car—U.S. or foreign—was even in sight.

The same basic Fairlane 289 V-8 that powered the Cobra is available in any of eight Fairlane models for 1964—giving sports-car spirit to this roomy family-size car.

Finals

Semester tests, administered at Belle Glade High School, have brought to a close the first semester of tests. Students were given these tests over a three-day period beginning on the 22nd of January and ending the afternoon of the 24th.

Second period exams and fifth period exams were given on Wednesday. Thursday's tests consisted of the first and the sixth period classes. Third and fourth period exams came on Friday. Regular classes were held during the day between the testing periods.

At the beginning of each testing period, a book check was taken and students not having their textbooks were sent to the office to try to clear up the situation.

Students in grades 8-12 were not allowed to leave the campus during the testing days. Only those students with regular lunch passes were allowed to leave.

Those students missing exams because of illness made-up their tests on Monday, January 27. For other students, Monday was a holiday. As for teachers, it was their "Planning Day."

The Right Answers - Are They Yours?

By Joan Fortenberry

"We didn't actually cheat. We just checked our answers to see if we got the same thing," says today's "honest" teenager. Students use funny excuses such as this one to cover up their guilt. Even the most honest teenager has cheated at one time in his life. Most high schoolers don't really want to cheat. They cheat because they are given the opportunity. They feel there's no reason to study when everyone else cheats and gets away with it. The students with the most ingenious methods of cheating are usually the smartest. With just a little more effort than it took to write their cheat-sheet, they could have learned the material.

Teachers need not figuratively ring alarm bells or hang a student up by his thumbs when he is caught cheating. It is a well-known fact that news travels fast. It won't take long for word to get around that you sure can't cheat in Mr. Brown's room because you'll get caught. This sounds as though there's no way to stop cheating short of a complete test ban. This is not true. If there were no laws, we might be tempted to steal to maintain survival in such a world. Otherwise, honest students are tempted to cheat by the same standard. It is not a question of bodily survival, but survival of grades, goals, and parent's standards.

Also, parents should not push their children beyond the child's capacity. This causes the student to feel he must make the grade, no matter what clandestine methods he uses. Cheating is a serious threat to morals, but with the right discipline and understanding from parents, teachers, and students, it can be almost entirely abolished.

School Stages Entertainment

Whether it's humor or drama that one seeks, he will find both at the Belle Glade High School Auditorium on Monday, February 17, at 7:30 p. m. There some of the most talented students of the school will enact entertaining skits. Some acts will range from rib tickling to hilarious; others will be bizarre, still others will range from the sweetly sentimental to heartbreaking.

In attendance will be such notables as Mr. Noah, fresh from the ark; Tom Sawyer in love or in trouble; and an unusual and bloodless Macbeth. Experience will range from the highest courtroom drama to troubles that accompany puppy love.

Students will be judged on their performances, and high scores will represent the school at the county contest on February 27-28, at Palm Beach Junior College.

This year, to cover the cost of readings and to provide funds for additional source materials, there will be admittance charges of fifty cents for adults, and twenty-five cents for students. The program however, is expected to be as good as many times that.

What Game?

As one approaches the gymnasium on the night of the biggest basketball game of the season he senses a feeling of victory and excitement.

After finally receiving his ticket, this average spectator begins pushing and shoving his way into the bleachers. They are filled to capacity so where do you think our young comrade finds a seat? Right next to the lady whose seven kids are climb all over the auditorium.

Before our friend can settle down to enjoy the game, he must go and buy himself a coke. As he gets up, the lady with all the kids kindly asks him to get her seven children cokes. Being a polite young man he obliges! ! ! Stumbling back through the crowd he spills half of the drinks. But never fail, our friend has had lessons in maneuvering. As he reaches his seat he discovers that the lady with her seven children has disappeared.

He now has seven cokes to dispose of. Of course no one wants a coke at this stage of the game so our friend has been left holding some COKE!! ! !

He tries his hardest to sit still so that he will be able to enjoy the game but the little child behind him keeps blowing bubble gum into his ear. He can't say anything to her because her parents are sitting right beside her.

After moving down a seat, our friend finds he can now seat comfortably and watch the game. But wait, what was that? Oh! no — not the final WHISTLE!!

Seahawks vs Rams

The Belle Glade Rams are host Friday night, February 7, to the Seacrest Seahawks in a basketball game.

The Rams are seventh in the Suncoast Conference, while the Seahawks rank third. With some school spirit and student support, the Rams would be able to come home with a victory. The spirit has dropped considerably for basketball season as compared with what the spirit was during football season. The season isn't over yet! Show the team that school spirit can still be rebuilt by attending the remaining games!

Our future games are as follows:
Feb. 7 — Seacrest Home
Feb. 8 — Clewiston Away
Feb. 11 — Riviera Away
Feb. 14 — Vero Away
Feb. 18 — Ft. Pierce Home
Feb. 21 — Pahokee Home

Beta Sweatshirts

Under the supervision of Dick Willis, the Beta Club has had a most successful money-making project. The club has sold sweatshirts with the Rams head on them and the lettering: Belle Glade Rams. Approximately $2,250.00 has been raised.

Willis has had to order additional shirts for those who didn't get theirs. These should be in about three weeks.

The Betas are to be congratulated for bringing a new tradition to B. G. H. S. We are all very proud to be wearing the Rams sweatshirt.

Gossiping Gandy

What was Sharon A. doing standing on the counter at the bowling alley?

If you will notice, Rachel C. is not wearing that heavy ring any more.

What is that about Sandra R. and Alice R. stealing strawberries?

Pam I. who belongs to the red corvair which has been seen in front of your house?

Bobby M. we are glad to see you back in school.

Paula R. who were you at the game with Tuesday night?

Barbara C. where did you get those beautiful roses? Could they have been a birthday present?

It seems the Jr. High School has become a meeting place.

Beth Livingston, we didn't know you were so clumsy as to fall off the seat at the bowling alley.

Sharon M., what was R. C. doing at the bowling alley without you Saturday night?

Did John S., Ron H., Dale H. and Steve H., have fun in Tampa?

Billie G., don't tell me your car broke down.

Bootsey W. and Nancy F. are seen together often.

Margie T., Evelyn H., Mickey M., how was the best Sunday?

Did Kay W., Skip S. and Neil W., have fun at the fair?

Lotta Problems

Dear Lotta:

What can I do, I'm at my wit's end. My mother keeps buying me beautiful clothes by the truckload but I don't have time to hem them so I have to give them away.

Auctioneer Annie

Dear Annie:

You do have quite a problem. I'm sorry but I have no solution, except to MAKE TIME 10 min. them. You're very fortunate, few people have such a terrible problem. Good luck with it.

Dear Lotta:

I am so jealous. I think my guy is the most handsome, well-liked boy in school. Every girl is after him, I just know it. Kids are forever talking to him. He really is just friendly but what can I do about the girls.

Jealous Jeanette

Dear Jealous:

Do nothing, just grin and bear it. You're lucky, just think he picked you, out of all those girls.

Your Library

The backbone of any library is its reference collection. Several recent additions, through purchase and gift donation, are helping to update this collection in the Belle Glade Public Library.

The 1963 edition of the Encyclopedia Americana, a reference work "covering everything under the sun" has been purchased. Among special features of the thirty volume set are digest articles on works of literature, operas, glossaries of special terms in fields such as geology, graphic arts, logic, banking, industry, labor, aeronautics, and atomic and nuclear terms. The index, and extensive cross references, help to make the set a useful, convenient tool.

A compact, fact-filled almanac Information Please, 1964, is a recent purchase.

THE DAWN OF CIVILIZATION, one of several gifts donated to the library by Mr. L. E. Will, is edited by Stuart Pigot, with texts by thirteen authors in the fields of history, a British publication, a cooperative venture concerning early man which succeeds as its purpose, not just to interest and inform, but to excite.

Using text and illustration it takes man from his first half million years ago to the beginnings of village life, the birth of civilization, the rise of God-Kings, finally to the age of commerce. Ancient India, China, barbarian Europe, and the America of the earliest Indian settlers are uncovered, and discussed in detail. The artifacts, weapons, pottery, statuary, art, and jewelry are shown in colorful illustrations, suggestive of those appearing in the National Geographic.

Architecture is the subject of two gift acquisitions, useful for reference.

MODERN CHURCH ARCHITECTURE, by Joseph Picard, is an impressive book presented by Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ball, Jr., as a memorial to Mr. Hazan Powell. It is a study of how artists and architects have responded to the problems of our times, and with the aid of the church, have come to visualize the Church. They assert individual judgement. Among 177 excellent photographs are some of American Churches, including the First Unitarian, of Madison, Wisconsin, designed by Frank Lloyd Wright, and the much publicized Inter-denominational Chapel at M. I. T.

FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT'S AMERICAN ARCHITECTURE was donated by Mrs. Paulita M. Zuehlke. The photographs, sketches, floor plans, and elevations show the dedication of this man to his maxim that "where principle is put to work there will always be style."

His prescription for a modern house was: "pick a good site... at the most difficult spot... one with features... individuality."

Wright's homes, many built decades ago, continue to look undated, because they were built to develop the landscape, to outgrow it. Well illustrated, the book is an imposing collection of ideas and comments.

Academy Party Enjoyed

STRENGTHEN AMERICA

SCOUTING CAN MAKE THE DIFFERENCE

SCOUT WEEK 1964

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Fifty-four years ago an unknown Scout guided an influential American businessman through the London fog and began the chain of events that marks this month the 53rd Anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America.

The years have spanned eras of scientific changes said to equal all the previous gains made by mankind since the dawn of time.

Our way of life has indeed been changed in the last half century as the tempo of living has increased, and problems of increasing magnitude are faced by individuals and by nations. Yet each of us who have witnessed such changes and differences from recent time must also be aware that many things particularly with our youth, remain markedly the same.

IT STILL TAKES ABOUT 20 YEARS FOR A BOY TO MATURE!

CHARACTER, personal integrity, honesty, courage and human regard are just as important today, perhaps more important, than in bygone years.

LOVE OF GOD AND COUNTRY and the personal belief and understanding which make such regard strong are essential. Scouting, and its impact on the millions of men and boys throughout the United States of America, has in the past and will continue into the future to help keep our nation strong by helping to shape character and conviction in boys, during their most impressionable and formative years.

Happy 53rd Anniversary to every functional Scout!

Highest Award In Girl Scouting Is Presented Belle Glade Couple

Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Allen, Jr.

At the Palm-Grades Girl Scout Council annual meeting in West Palm Beach, Jan. 27, Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Allen, Jr., Belle Glade were each presented a Thanks Badge, by Mrs. Bernard Munary, retiring Council president. The Thanks Badge is the highest award given to adults in Girl Scouting, for outstanding service, while exemplifying Girl Scout Ideals and beliefs. It is given by vote of the Board of Directors upon letters of recommendation by council members.

Mrs. Allen, retiring as board member-at-large and Dist. III chairman for the Glades area, began her scouting work in Beltsville, Md., with a Brownie troop, and continued in that capacity after a move to West Palm Beach. Coming to Belle Glade, in the fall of 1953 she became chairman of the Central Council guiding lone troops operating at that time. She was appointed to the study committee for enlargement of the municipal Council of the Palm Beaches in line with national plans, bringing all areas under council coverage.

"Sunday In New York" Scheduled At RP Playhouse Feb. 10-15

"Sunday in New York," David Merrick's production that rocked Broadway three seasons ago is the next attraction at Frank J. Hale's RP Playhouse in Palm Beach. The comedy plays for ten performances beginning Monday, February 10th, and playing through Saturday, February 15th.

Written by Norman Krasna, "Sunday in New York" stars the exciting young stage and motion picture personality Susan Kohner. Appearing with her will be Stephen Brooks and James Condon.

"Sunday in New York" follows a young midwestern girl's trip to New York City to see her brother, who to say the least, is a bit of a lady's man. The hilarious complications arise when her fiancé unexpectedly shows up in the New York apartment. Raised in Hollywood, Miss Kohner is the daughter of Lupita Tovar, famed motion picture star of Mexico, and Hollywood talent agent Paul Kohner.

She made her first movie "To Hell and Back" with Annita Marz. Her play, Ross Hunter saw her and cast her in an unforgettable film.

Gordon O'Keefe Asks For Job As Clerk Of Court

James B. "Gordon" O'Keefe of Boy Beach, deputy clerk, has formally announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination to Clerk of the Circuit Court of Palm Beach County.

In a statement released this week O'Keefe said: "Because of the fact that J. Alex Arnette, the present Clerk will not seek re-election, many of my friends have suggested that I consider running for the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court in Palm Beach County because of the experience I have gained in the seven and a half years as an employee of Arnette and as a deputy clerk."

"After due consideration I have decided to announce my candidacy for that office."

"I feel that the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court is one of the most important ones as it involves great responsibility requiring well qualified and experienced personnel."

"It will be my aim to continue the progressive policies established by Mr. Arnette with his experienced and well trained staff, endeavoring to maintain the enviable position that the Palm Beach County Clerk's Office now holds as one of the most modern, complete and efficient not only in the state but in the country."

"I will always strive to give the maximum service with minimum cost."

He also stated he would resign his present position on or before qualifying time in March. A resident of Palm Beach County since 1949, O'Keefe is a veteran of World War II, attends the Methodist Church and is active in civic and fraternal work and youth organizations. He resides with his wife, Gladys, in Delray Beach.
